

Biography

Dirk C. Olsen

Account Executive

Dirk Olsen recently joined Alper Services after spending the past twelve years with a Major Insurance Broker. His primary responsibility involves new business marketing, design and implementation of Commercial Insurance Programs for Middle Market Accounts.

His broad industry focus includes metal recycling manufacturing, lumber and wood products manufacturing, and retail service firms.

Dirk graduated from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale with a Bachelors of Science in Finance. He has been a licensed insurance producer since 1982 and is currently working towards the Certified Risk Manager Designation.

“To help Clients achieve their goals, I leverage my extensive experience with Middle Market products and a firm commitment to creating positive relationships based on responsive, efficient and effective service.”

Dirk Olsen