

Biography

Herbert M. Singer

Life Insurance Consultant

For more than 25 years, Herb Singer has been serving the insurance and financial interests of Alper Clients. During his tenured Alper career, Herb has performed many value-added roles, including Director of Financial Services. Today, he leverages more than 40 years of insurance experience with life insurance and related products to provide focused counseling and advice.

Herb is a passionate Client advocate, scrutinizing life insurance policies to ensure their performance objectives will remain in force. Applying his insurance expertise, he seizes every opportunity to minimize estate taxes and reduce the overall cost of insurance. He is able to apply his wealth of life insurance knowledge to a wide variety of situations, including Buy-Sell Insurance, Deferred Compensation Insurance, and Key-Employee Insurance. In addition, he helps preserve the long-term financial stability of Alper Clients through Disability and Long Term Care programs.

In his ongoing commitment to various charitable causes, Herb has sat on numerous charitable boards, including the Les Turner Foundation.

“To preserve the wealth and well-being of your family is the greatest gift of love one can give.”

Herbert Singer